

Moving shouldn't require your full attention.

Special discounts on moving services—exclusively available to you from the National Home Buyers Association

Put the power of the worlds top moving service provider - Allied Van Lines - to work for you, so you can keep your life moving during your move, with as little stress as possible. It's the easiest, most affordable way to relocate yourself and your family. Allied will provide superior service and the peace of mind that your belongings are being moved by professionals.

Trusted service

Experience professional service from the national leading van line - Allied

- 75 years' experience in household goods moving
- Relocates more than 145,000 families per year
- Centralized customer service with a preferred local agents

Preferred rate

Move with the leading national moving services company for less.

- Preferred rates for home buyers working with National Home Buyers Association
- Save money on interstate moving, in-transit storage, and personal property protection service

Call 1.800.823.0755 today to get moving

Moving discount applied to interstate moves. This offer applies to household moves between the 48 contiguous states. The interstate moving discount is based on rates in published tariff HGB 400-N (or reissues thereof) in effect on the date of the shipment loads. Allied Van Lines, Inc. U.S. DOT No. 076235.

POWERED BY SIRVA